

Recycling – Batteries & Fluorescent Bulbs

Include these items:

Solid household and automobile batteries, fluorescent light bulbs (including compact fluorescents)

Not acceptable:

Items containing mercury (thermostats, thermometers, some switches) should be handed to the attendant.

How and where to recycle:

Large batteries should be placed near buckets on compactor platforms. Smaller items should be placed in marked buckets on compactor platforms. (Location 14)

Recycling information:

- Some materials in these items are recycled

